

Frédérique S. Santerre

M: +41 78 711 8606 • T/F: +41 22 738 1812 • fs@fredsanterre.com

Profile & Objective

Over ten years experience in international public and corporate affairs, public health and the pharmaceutical industry
Seeking a senior management position in the pharmaceutical sector where the knowledge, skills and experience gained can be leveraged to contribute and make a difference

Core Competencies

- Market & policy analysis, objectives & strategy definition, negotiation, mediation, consensus building & implementation
- Business intelligence, research, synthesis, formulation and communication
- Project Management - initiation, coordination, facilitation, implementation of deliverables on time within budget
- Leadership, results oriented, problem-solver, fast-learner, dynamic, thrives under pressure, multi-tasking, polyvalent, attention to detail, quality focused, excellent communication & interpersonal skills

Professional Experience

- 2005- International Federation of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers & Associations (IFPMA), Geneva, Switzerland
Director, Health Care Systems: Responsible for global health care policy dossiers, incl. health reform, funding, cost-containment, drug pricing & reimbursement, health technology assessment (HTA) & health economics, marketing practices & ethics, WHO ATC/DDD classification, health quality metrics and indicators
- Agree and set objectives, deliver on time, beyond target and within budget on all dossiers
 - Conceived, established and manage two global industry senior networks (code ethics & HTA)
 - Industry representative to the UN World Health Organisation (WHO)
- 02/05 Harvard University, Kennedy School of Govt, Cambridge, MA, USA
Post-Doctorate Research Fellow & Project Manager: Invited to lead and participate in various cross department research projects on science and technology - conference speaking, teaching, research papers
- 2004 World Health Organisation, Commission on Tropical Diseases (CTD), Geneva, Switzerland
Consultant: Advisor on intergovernmental negotiations on Public-Private Partnership for Global Health, Neglected Diseases - Human African Trypanosomiasis (sleeping sickness)
- 01/02 International Centre for Trade and Sustainable Development, Geneva, Switzerland
Program Officer & Project Leader: Responsible for the African Trade Project
- 99/00 World Economic Forum - Davos, Geneva & Davos, Switzerland
Private Business Meeting Leader: Coordinated and facilitated all official private sessions with high-ranking government officials and industry leaders
- 96/01 Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva, Switzerland
Program Manager, Teaching & Research Assistant: Managed inter-university collaborative doctoral program
- 95/98 United Nations Experience, Geneva, Switzerland
Communication Officer, WHO 1998; Project Assistant, UNHCR 1997; Conference Coordinator, ITU 1995
- 95/96 International Union for Conservation of Nature, Geneva, Switzerland & Brisbane, Australia
Advisor to the Secretariat on political & legal issues - Coordinated & facilitated diplomatic conference

Education

Harvard University, Kennedy School, USA, 2005
Graduate Institute of Intl Studies, Switzerland, 2004
Graduate Institute of Intl Studies, Switzerland, 1996
University of Glasgow, Scotland, UK, 1994
The Sorbonne, Paris, France, 1993

Post-Doctorate in Science, Technology and Society
Ph.D. in International Relations summa cum laude
Master in International Relations magna cum laude
MPhil in Comparative and International Politics cum laude
Bachelor in Economics cum laude

Additional Data

Nationality: French Date of Birth: 14 April 1971 Status: Single Ph.D.: Encounter in Bio-Complexity: Global Governance of Biodiversity, Biotechnology and Intellectual Property Rights
Languages: French (native), English (fluent), Spanish (working language) & Italian (basic knowledge)
Travels: Lived in France, Scotland, the UK, Switzerland, Spain and the US - Travelled extensively worldwide
IT: Fully proficient computer skills and use of relevant software, applications and internet (html programming)
Interests: Horse riding, Skiing, Yoga, Kickboxing, Primitive Art, Fine Cuisine & Wine-Tasting, Harvard Swiss Chapter Member